

Contract for the Acquisition of a Soul

I the undersigned (hereforth referred to as "soul-bearer") do hereby relinquish all ownership, rights, privileges and permissions of my everlasting and eternal soul (hereforth referred to as "your soul") to the Eternal Prince of Darkness (hereforth referred to as "Satan"), in exchange for the item(s) listed below (hereforth referred to as "the item").

Regulations :

I. The item may include that of an intangible nature (such as love, happiness, world peace or the death of an enemy), however may not be anything that would deem this contract null and void (e.g. eternal life, immortality, existing in a time before this contract was signed, etc.)

II. If the item is to be something that involves a 3rd party's life (as would be the case in exchanging one's soul for love) - both parties' souls become the ownership of Satan.

III. Item will be granted in exchange for your soul within 24 hours of the signing of this contract. If item is not granted in the allotted time, exchange (and this contract) shall become null and void until further notice.

IV. One item per soul. No refunds or renegotiations. All exchanges are final and valid for all eternity. Cannot be combined with any other offer or soul.
